The students wishing to get their certificate of competency will also be required to pass an online test. The Diploma is delivered by the Lloyd's Maritime Institute which is a Member of the BIMCO and recognised by the International Association of Marine and Shipping Professionals as satisfactory professional Marine Surveying training in order to be eligible for the Association Membership. Prior to joining the association as an Accredited Shipping Business, the Institute will ensure that students benefit from available internship opportunities with institute's partners in the student's country of residency. Each request from enrolled students will be considered if the student wish to pursue his practical training abroad in a country other than his country of residency.

FLEXIBLE STUDYING

Our flexible study means that you can vary the pace of study if life gets in the way of learning. It is preferred that you complete the Diploma in 4 months however we can offer a further 3 month extension if required.

Each module should take between 10-30 hours to complete with additional time required to complete the student assignments.

The value of study isn't just about the qualification you receive at the end, it's the way it can change your life as a whole.

SUPPORT

You'll enjoy full support throughout your studies, with module tutors to guide, advise and offer comprehensive feedback on your course work. Support is also offered by other Institute's staff and fellow students at tutorials, or as part of the global community of students who can be reached through online student forums and social media sites.

YOU ARE NEVER ON YOUR OWN

Although you work in your own environment, you'll never be on your own. You'll have the opportunity to meet your fellow students in tutorials and online forums. There are growing networking opportunities during the seminars and socializing events organized by the institute and you will be regularly invited to attend such events.

WORK FULL TIME AND STUDY PART TIME

Most cargo surveying diploma students work full time and study part time. This flexible route to earning a qualification allows you to do as much study as you can, alongside your job.

Building your experience and qualifications at the same time also shows employers how committed you are.

WORK BASED QUALIFICATION

It's possibly the first course or qualification you've done in cargo surveying and it's a good way of getting accreditation in what you're already doing.

TUITION IN YOUR COUNTRY

Tutorial support will be provided by online forums and email. There will be also scheduled face-to-face tutorial meeting depending on your needs and the number of students in your area, you will also be supported by the professional marine surveyors whom are partners of our institute.

VALUE FOR MONEY

We make sure great learning is also great value, so our tuition fees don't just cover high quality education, they also include support from highly experienced and knowledgeable tutors, access to our online forum and the association joining and membership fees for 5 years.

Studying with us is the most competitive professional training in terms of costs and quality and we are the only institute ensuring that your training will be complete and include certification from recognised leading classification societies and also you will have the flexibility to carry on working, you can earn while you learn.

WE MAKE LEARNING AFFORDABLE

Investing in your own future may be one of the best decisions you'll ever make, but finding ways to pay tuition fees can be a challenge.

That is why we ensure you have fee support through our payment plan service.

STUDENTS LOVE STUDYING WITH US

We welcome all students. If you think you've got what it takes to study with us, then so do we. There is no doubt that studying the cargo surveying diploma takes hard work and dedication, so you do need determination and commitment.
